

July 31, 2006 ROTARY CLUBS INSTALL OFFICERS

Steve Speer will lead the Rotary Club of Newport-Balboa, John Hedlund will head up the Rotary Club of Newport Beach Sunrise, and Al Rasch will take charge of the Rotary Club of Newport-Irvine in 2006-07 after a series of installation dinners held in July.

Serving on the Newport-Balboa board with Speer are Bob Silver, president-elect; Ed Rennie, secretary; Wendell Sawyer, treasurer; and Roger Gilbert, Bill Hossfield, Richard Holmgren, Dan Hoffman, Nancy Raney, Marc Aarons and Nate White, directors. The 52-member club was chartered in 1939 and originally met as a dinner club on Balboa Island. It still meets for dinner at 6 p.m. Wednesday at the Bahia Corinthian Yacht Club.

Serving on the Newport Beach Sunrise board with Hedlund are JoAnne DeBlis, president-elect; Mary Ann Goodman, secretary; Christian Holliday, treasurer; and Willis Longyear, Syd Lucas, John Goodland, Wendy and Troy Hooper, Ernest Oaktes, Reniero Fransisco, Nagy Lbrahim and Tim Brown, directors. The Newport Beach Sunrise Club was chartered in 1981 and meets at 7:30 a.m. Tuesdays at Five Crowns Restaurant.
